

The PEI Declaration

Gabriella Sozanski
Member of the Steering Committee
Alliance for Health Promotion

The PEI Declaration

Objective

- Take it to Shanghai 9GCHP
- Tool for programming and advocacy

How Zero Draft has been developed – Writing Room coordinating international consultation

Process of participants' input and comments during the Forum

Final Declaration – Charlottetown Call for Action at the Ontario Health Promotion Conference submit to WHO as a poster presentation

How to contribute

- <http://globalforumpei-forummondialipe.com/en2016/pei-declaration>
- Social media using #6GFHP (English) or #6FMPS (français)
- Tweeting @PEIDeclaration or
- e-mail: peideclaration@gmail.com
- Follow @TheQuaich for live updates on Twitter throughout the event

Where to contribute

- Plenary Workshops

Day 1 - 10:45-12:00

Day 2 - 9:15-10:15

- Concurrent Workshops

Day 1 - 13:00-14:30

Day 2 - 10:45-12:00

Notecards collected at session recorders

Comments welcome at the Writing Room

The process

- End of Day 1 – updated version Draft 1 posted on website
- am Day 2 – Draft 1 presented, responses until 12 noon
- 2pm Day 2 – Draft 2 presented, reactions from panelists and participants
- Input to Declaration closes at 4pm on Day 2
- PEI Declaration posted on website at the end of Day 2 and sent to participants